

Donald R. Kennon / Thomas P. Somma (ed.): American Pantheon. Sculptural and Artistic Decoration of the United States Capitol, Athens OH: Ohio University Press 2004, VIII + 291 S., 16 plates, ISBN 0-8214-1443-7, GBP 19.95.

Preface	vii
Pantheon on the Potomac: The Architectural Evolution of the Capitol Rotunda WILLIAM C. ALLEN	1
The Italian Influence on American Political Iconography: The United States Capitol as Lure and Dissemnator PAMELA POTTER-HENNESSEY	23
A New World Pantheon: Italian Sculptural Contributions in the Capitol Rotunda PAMELA POTTER-HENNESSEY	59
Virtue and Virtual Reality in John Trumbull's "Pantheon" IRMA B. JAFFE	72
"Lost in America": David d'Angers's Bronze Statue of Thomas Jefferson, 1832-1833 THOMAS P. SOMMA	90
The Problem with Public Art: Henry Kirke Brown's Thinking Negro (1855) from His Pedimental Design for the United States Capitol THOMAS P. SOMMA	111
Photographing the Interior Sky: A Photographer's View of State Capitols ERIC OXENDORF	138
Masking Slavery in and on the United States Capitol Rotunda VIVIEN GREEN FRYD	143
Vinnie Ream's Lincoln (1871): The Sexual Politics of a Sculptor's Studio KIRK SAVAGE	160
Mythology, Allegory, and History: Brumidi's Frescoes for the New Dome BARBARA A. WOLANIN	176
Constantino Brumidi as Decorator and History Painter: An Iconographic Analysis of Two Rooms in the United States Capitol FRANCIS V. O'CONNOR	204

Gender and Public Space: Women and Art in the United States Capitol, 1860-2001 TERESA B. LACHIN	220
The United States Capitol Rotunda and the Decoration of the State Capitols, 1870-1930 FRANCIS V. O'CONNOR	254
Contributors	279
Index	281