

Mieke Prent: Cretan Sanctuaries and Cults. Continuity and Change from Late Minoan IIIC to the Archaic Period (= Religions in the Graeco-Roman World, Vol. 154), Leiden / Boston / Tokyo: Brill Academic Publishers 2005, xviii + 737 S., ISBN 90-04-14236-3, 169,00.

---

Preface	XI
List of Tables and Illustrations	XIII

CHAPTER ONE

INTRODUCTION

1. Background to the Inquiry, Subject and Aim	1
2. The Identification of Sanctuaries in the Archaeological Record, Definitions and Terminology	12
3. Votives	26
4. Chronology and Abbreviations	33

CHAPTER TWO

HISTORY OF RESEARCH

1. Early Scholarship and the Discovery of Minoan Civilisation	37
2. Arthur Evans and the Early 20th-Century Rise of Minoan Crete: Unity and Continuity	53
3. Subsequent Scholarship and Critique	84

CHAPTER THREE

SANCTUARIES AND CULTS OF THE LATE MINOAN IIIC-SUBMINOAN PERIOD

1. Introduction	103
2. Catalogue A (part one): LM IIIC-SM Urban and Suburban Sanctuaries	126
3. Catalogue A (part two): LM IIIC-SM Extra-Urban Sanctuaries	154
4. Principal Types of LM IIIC-SM Cult Equipment and Votives	174
Terracotta figures of 'Goddesses with Upraised Arms' and associated objects	181
Terracotta animal figures and associated objects	184
5. The Freestanding Bench Sanctuary and Other LM IIIC-SM Urban Cult Places	188
6. LM IIIC-SM Extra-Urban Sanctuaries: Caves and Open-Air Cult Places	200

CHAPTER FOUR

SANCTUARIES AND CULTS OF THE PROTOGEOMETRIC, GEOMETRIC AND ORIENTALIZING PERIODS

1.	Introduction	211
2.	The formation and organisation of the Cretan poleis	218
	External relations and outward orientation	226
	Concluding remarks	242
3.	Catalogue B (part one): PG-O Urban and Suburban Sanctuaries	244
4.	Catalogue B (part two): PG-O Extra-Urban Sanctuaries	311
	Principal Types of PG-O Cult Equipment and Votives	353
	Sources and models for interpretation	354
	Metal cult equipment and votives	367
	Shields and small 'discs'	368
	Cauldrons and associated stands	377
	Armour	383
	Anthropomorphic figurines	388
	Zoomorphic figurines	392
	Personal objects and jewellery	397
	Terracotta cult equipment and votives	399
	Wheelmade anthropomorphic figures	399
	Wheelmade zoomorphic figures	403
	Mouldmade plaques and figurines	405
	Anthropomorphic and zoomorphic figurines	418
	Ceramic vessels and lids	419
	Concluding remarks	420
5.	The Waning of the Bench Sanctuary and the Image of the 'Goddess with Upraised Arms'	424
6.	Hearth Temples: Prytaneia, Andreia and Rituals of Communal Dining	441
7.	The Rise of the Suburban Sanctuaries: Rituals of Integration and the Articulation of Social Roles	476
	Major community sanctuaries at conspicuous locations	477
	Smaller suburban sanctuaries in the countryside surrounding the settlements	503
8.	Sanctuaries at the Ruins of Bronze Age Monuments	508
	Knossos	514
	Phaistos and Ayia Triada	519
	Kommos	523
	Amnisos	527
	Palaikastro	532
	Concluding remarks	550
9.	Extra-Urban Cave and Open-Air Sanctuaries: Continuation of Cult and the Rise of Cult Places of Interregional Importance	554
	Old extra-urban sanctuaries with modest votive assemblages	557
	Extra-urban sanctuaries with (inter-)regional functions	559
	Interregional sanctuaries outside Crete: Olympia and Delphi	562
	The Idaean cave and Syme: location, setting and sanctuary organisation	565
	The Idaean cave and Syme: élite participation and character of the cult	576
	The Tsoutsouros cave	604

Extra-urban sanctuaries with (sub-)regional functions	606
Patsos	606
Psychro	608

CHAPTER FIVE

SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS: CONTINUITY AND CHANCE

The LM IIIC-SM period ( c. 1200 to 970 BC)	614
The PG, G and O periods ( c. 970-600 BC)	623
Bibliography	655
Tables	700
Maps and Illustrations	709
Index	711